1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals, and welfare):

The City has initiated a Code amendment that would establish a Special Magistrate position that is appointed by the City Commission. The Special Magistrate would serve in promoting the public welfare by rendering decisions relating to violations of City Code, violations of the City's alcohol ordinance, as well as hear appeals for violations related to speed enforcement cameras. The Code Enforcement Board will remain active, and decisions in code enforcement cases may be rendered by either entity.

2. Estimate of direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the City:

There will be no direct economic impact on private, for-profit businesses in the City as a result of this ordinance.

3. Estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur:

There will be no direct compliance costs to businesses as a result of this ordinance provided they are not in violation of the City's Code of Ordinances.

4. Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance:

There are no new fees or charges imposed by this ordinance.

5. Estimate of the City's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs:

The amount of compensation to cover the new special magistrate position shall be determined by contract and approved by the city commission. The exact fee structure and costs are not known at this time.

6. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

No business should be impacted by this proposed ordinance.

7. Additional information (if any, but may wish to include the methodology used to derive information for #1 and #2, above. For example: City staff solicited comments from businesses in the City as to the potential impact of the proposed ordinance by contacting the chamber of commerce, social media posting, direct mail or direct email, posting on City website, public workshop, etc. You may also wish to include efforts made to reduce the potential fiscal impact on businesses based on feedback from businesses. You may also wish to state here that the proposed ordinance is a generally applicable ordinance that applies to all persons similarly situated (individuals as well as businesses) and, therefore, the proposed ordinance does not impose costs only upon businesses.):
